The Story Is Who You Brought With You in Spirit

Nearly one hundred members of #VaLIN Cohort 2 signed up to participate in the July 23rd Summer Pathways Culminating Collaboration. But the story is more than the fact that, with everything educators have going on right now, people came together in service of purposeful learning, equity, and engagement and connection.

The insights shared during our time together illuminated some key takeaways to consider as we head into a school year that promises to challenge us all, including the role of relationships, the magnitude of equity, and our role as learners.
